

House Resolution No. 159

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have demonstrated their true value as citizens through the excellence of their diverse pursuits; and

Whereas, Ann Ronchetto will be a guest of honor at the inaugural Pillar of the Community award banquet which will be sponsored by the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce and held on Saturday, January 24, 2004, at the Grain Valley Community Center; and

Whereas, a graduate of Avila College and a resident of Grain Valley since 1979, Ann Ronchetto is employed as a nurse at The Medical Center of Independence in the Recovery Room, Outpatient Department, and the G.I. Lab; and

Whereas, in addition to her leadership activities in the health care profession, Ann Ronchetto has been a highly involved parent with the local school district through her service as a room mother, Bingo chair for the Junior Class in 1991 and 1992, and Project Graduation participant during its inception in 1992 and again in 1993 and 1998; and

Whereas, Ann Ronchetto was president of PTA in 1989, a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee, and a member of the School Board who was appointed to a one-year term and was elected to two additional full terms; and

Whereas, a current member and Treasurer of Grain Valley Optimist, Ann Ronchetto is proud of her special role as the beloved wife of John Ronchetto; mother of Julie Swain of Columbia, John J. Ronchetto, Jr., of Blue Springs, and Michael Ronchetto of Grain Valley; and grandmother of two-year-old Maddy:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar, civic-minded activities engaged in by Ann Ronchetto down through the years and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon her well-deserved selection for a Pillar of the Community Award by the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce and our best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Ann Ronchetto.
